Is there anything missing from this existing programme?

Please share with us any other information you would like to.

A key component of the course is attending the face-to-face meetings and the visit to a nursing centre. Do you think the nurses in your country will be able to attend and do you see any barriers to this? Additionally, will hospitals allow nurses 2 hours per week to undertake the self-directed learning?

Thank you for taking the time to answer these questions.
