

PROGRAMME

Y-ECCO FUTURE LEADERS IN IBD ACADEMY

Friday, June 25, 2027, 16:30 - 22:00

Venues:

- Bowling – Kugeltanz (bowling)
Address: Hauptallee 124, 1020 Vienna
- Dinner – Restaurant/pizzas TBC
Address: TBC

16:00	Meet at the hotel Lobby
	Walk to venue
16:30 – 18:00	Team activity – Bowling
	Walk back to hotel
18:30 – 22:00	Dinner at Restaurant TBC

Saturday, June 26, 2027, 08:00 – 15:30

Venue: Hotel TBC

Address: TBC

08:00	Welcome
08:00 - 08:30	Welcome & Introduction to ECCO Speakers: Manuela Estevinho, Vila Nova de Gaia, Portugal Nuru Noor, Cambridge, United Kingdom Y-ECCO representatives From clinician to ECCO president: how to become a leader in IBD? Speaker: Alessandro Armuzzi, Milan, Italy ECCO GB representative
08:30 - 12:00	Session 1: Rapid fire tips and tricks – 20 mins per table Chairs: Judith Wellens, Leuven, Belgium new Y-ECCO member Y-ECCO representatives
08:30 - 08:50	Table 1: Publish or perish: how to publish original research? Speaker: Julien Kirchgesner, Paris, France ResCom representative
08:50 - 09:10	Table 2: Mentorship in action: how to find a good mentor? Speaker: Eileen Crowley, London, Canada P-ECCO representative
09:10 - 09:30	Table 3: Surgical precision: how to master practical skills? Speaker: Caroline Nordenvall, Stockholm, Sweden S-ECCO representative
09:30 - 10:00	Coffee Break
10:00 - 10:20	Table 4: Show me the money: how to get funded and build a team? Speaker: Nick Powell, London, United Kingdom SciCom representative
10:00 - 10:40	Table 5: Never stop learning: how to implement new skills/technology? Speaker: Mariangela Allocca, Milan, Italy GuiCom representative
10:40 - 11:00	Talk: Can you have it all? How to be an IBD leader, have kids and move abroad. Speaker: Sophie Restellini, Geneva, Switzerland EduCom representative
11:00 - 11:45	MDT discussion: How will AI change the IBD landscape by 2030? Monitoring/imaging IBD perspectives (Mariangela Allocca, Milan, Italy) Medical IBD perspectives (Julien Kirchgesner, Paris, France) Surgical IBD perspectives (Caroline Nordenvall, Stockholm, Sweden) Pediatric IBD perspectives (Eileen Crowley, London, Canada) Research IBD perspectives (Nick Powell, London, United Kingdom) Discussion with Q&A: All speakers and attendees

11:45 - 13:00	Lunch Symposium (sponsored by Industry) and time for interaction
13:00 - 15:30	Session 2: IBD Research Study Chairs: Marieke Barnhoorn, Leiden, Netherlands new Y-ECCO member Y-ECCO representatives
13:00 - 13:15	Clinical research methodology in IBD Speaker: Julien Kirchgerner, Paris, France Top tips for designing a clinical study and what will dragons be looking for in group research presentations.
13:15 - 13:30	Basic science research methodology in IBD Speaker: Nick Powell, London, United Kingdom Top tips for designing a basic science study and what will dragons be looking for in group research presentations.
13:30 - 14:30	Group Work – “Dragon’s Den” 4 Groups (x7-8 people in each) design a clinical or basic science research study on the following topics: A) Acute severe ulcerative colitis (Blue group) B) Perianal fistulizing Crohn’s disease (Green group) C) Colitis-associated dysplasia/cancer (Yellow group) D) Fibro-stenotic Crohn’s disease (Red group)
14:30 - 15:30	Team presentation 15 minutes for each group (7-8 minutes team presentation, then 7 minutes Q&A with dragons) Panel of dragons (1 minute Q&A each): Alessandro Armuzzi, Milan, Italy Sophie Restellini, Geneva, Switzerland Mariangela Allocca, Milan, Italy Caroline Nordenvall, Stockholm, Sweden Eileen Crowley, London, Canada Julien Kirchgerner, Paris, France Nick Powell, London, United Kingdom
15:30 - 15:35	Closing remarks Chairs: Virginia Solitano, Milan, Italy Florian Tran, Kiel, Germany Y-ECCO representatives